

CURRICULUM VITAE

Lorna Andrews
8 Cedar House, Aspen Vale, Whyteleafe, Surrey, CR3 0YT
Home: 0208 660 4411
Mob: 0796 885 8710
E-mail: photography@lorna-andrews.co.uk

Personal Statement:

Enthusiastic and creative photographer with an attentive eye for detail, working meticulously and diligently, always aiming for the highest possible standard.

A reliable, responsible and flexible team worker with outstanding communication skills.

I have an apt and open personality, enjoy challenge and the acquisition of new skills and I am now hoping to combine my previous experiences with my current competence in photography in order to pursue my Hoteye Photography business.

Competent with utilizing the latest computer technology for professional design and creative purposes.
Confident working with the latest digital equipment.

Education:

2002-2005 Sussex University,
Photomedia BA (hons),

Photomedia BA (Hons) degree:

BA honours degree comprising of in depth study of film, digital and traditional photography.
Developed an understanding of theoretical and contextual issues, knowledge of relevant professional and technical procedures and specialist skills related to the practice of photography.

Acquired transferable, intellectual and creative skills of enquiry, analysis and evaluation, fostering an individual vision and philosophy.

Advanced knowledge of computer skills and digital manipulation which are essential within photography in this digital age in which we live.

2000-2002 St Bede's Ecumenical School, Redhill.
2 A-Levels, 1 Advanced GNVQ, 2 AS-Levels,
Grade B in Photography
Grade C in Graphic Design

1995-2000 St Bede's Ecumenical School, Redhill
8 GCSE's grades A-C
Including Maths, English, Science, Art and Graphics
3 GCSE's grade D

Employment and Work Experience:

2005.
Hoteye Photography- Photographer

Producing creative and innovative photographs for companies such as NLP and Route 22.
Taking imaginative and compelling photographs for the CR2 Directory on a monthly basis.

Organizing and photographing special occasions and events.

Creating inventive and artistic family portrait photographs for various clients.

Computer literate, using programmes such as Microsoft Word, Publisher and Excel, Adobe Photoshop, Paint Shop Pro, Final Cut Pro and Macromedia Dreamweaver.

2002-2005.

Threshers- Senior Sales Assistant

Supervising, organizing and leading a team of people to achieve exceptional customer service.
Development of interpersonal skills and admirable communication skills, interacting with both customers and employees.

Utilizing creative and presentational skills, constructing displays within the shop.

Developed the ability to work under pressure and implement problem solving skills in this busy retail sales environment.

2004

John Lewis photo shoot- Work Experience

Acquiring experience by assisting the photographer in the photo shoot, providing technical support and organizing the positioning of lighting equipment and props.

Communication and team work were essential to do the job efficiently and professionally.

2004

Tony Bennett Wedding Photography- Work Experience

Gaining experience of wedding photography by observing and providing technical assistance.

Interests and Activities:

Enduring passion for painting, photography and sculpture.

Enjoy a wide variety of sports including swimming, skiing and trampoline skills.

Take great pleasure out of reading photographic theory, philosophy, fiction and crime stories.

References:

References will be supplied on request